

The FCC is considering overturning New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' law because it is more stringent than the federal program.

New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' law is among the strictest in the country. Now, the law is under attack from telemarketers who want the ability to call people despite the fact that they have signed up for the 'Do Not Call' list.

I urge the FCC to leave New Jersey's consumer protection laws intact. -Luke R. Kostu, Hopelawn NJ
